

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Soulful LA-based R&B artist 7even Daze breaks into 2020 with emotional empowerment anthem ‘Down’

Up and coming Los Angeles R&B artist 7EVEN DAZE sings of sacrifice, self-worth and toxic relationships in her haunting debut single ‘Down’, set for release on June 19th.

Creatively influenced by artists like Daniel Caesar, Frank Ocean and Beyoncé, 7EVEN DAZE’s music belongs to an experimental new wave of R&B that isn’t afraid to be different.

With sultry vocals and a stripped-down sincerity that hits listeners at their core, the artist’s unapologetically vulnerable lyrics explore what it means to put yourself first and walk away from a toxic relationship:

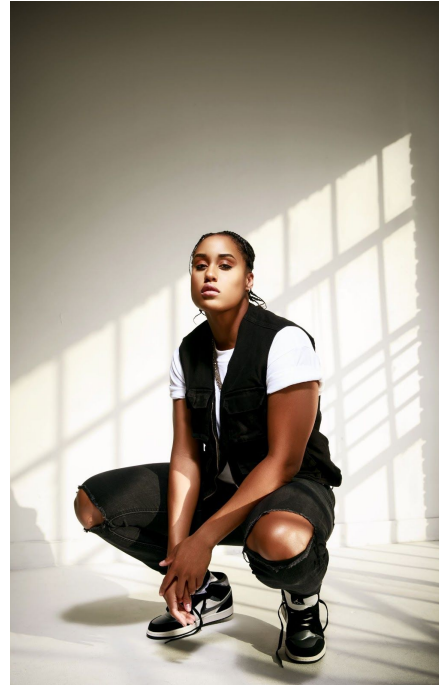

“This song is personal to me. It’s really about overcoming heartbreak and gaining the strength to walk away from a toxic relationship. I took multiple losses and sacrificed so much for someone who wasn’t willing to sacrifice for me. I lost myself in the process, but gained so much in the end.”

– 7EVEN DAZE

7EVEN DAZE is currently working with producers Jason Smith, Gil Smith, and Larry Cox on her upcoming album ‘Sanity’.

‘Down’ will be available on all digital streaming platforms on June 19th 2020.

Listen to 7EVEN DAZE at <https://soundcloud.com/user-384629537>

ABOUT 7EVEN DAZE

7EVEN DAZE is an upcoming contemporary R&B artist from Los Angeles. With soulful, sultry vocals and raw emotional lyrics, her music belongs to an experimental new wave of R&B. 7EVEN DAZE grew up in a family of musicians and first began performing as a young child, singing with her twin brother in church. Never one to stay within traditional boundaries, 7EVEN DAZE first carved out a successful career as a professional basketball player in Germany before taking the leap into music, starting with debut single ‘Down’.